Tentative Schedule:

May 8th – Thursday – Fly out of the United States and fly to Edinburgh, Scotland.

May 9th – Friday – Arrive in Edinburgh and a host will meet you and transfer you to the hotel in the Grassmarket area, right under the Edinburgh Castle. Meeting tonight to go over details of trip.

May 10th – Saturday – Tour of Edinburgh including Holyrood Palace with our local guide. Evening dinner and show at Prestonfield. Enjoy the music, dancing and history of the country.

May 11th – Sunday - We travel to Stirling and learn the history of Braveheart and the Scottish fight against the English. We will see the beautiful countryside near Glasgow as we make our trek.

May 12th – Monday – Today we travel to St. Andrews, the home of the British Open Golf Tournament. We'll visit this historic course then take a tour of the city before heading north to Aberdeen where we will stay for the next three nights.

May 13th – Tuesday – We'll call this "Whiskey Day" as we will see how they brew their whiskey in two different distilleries, Cardhu and Glenlivet. Also very fascinating is how they make their barrels at Speyside Cooperage.

May 14th – Wednesday – Today is "Castle Day" as we visit Dunnottar Hotel as it hangs on a cliff. We will also visit where the British Royals "holiday" for the summer, Balmoral Castle.

May 15th – Thursday – Today we head for the northern coast and the beautiful city of Inverness which is surrounded by water. We make a stop at Cullodden where the Scots had one of their most famous battles.

May 16th – Friday – We visit Cawdor Castle, the famous castle known in Shakespeare's Macbeth. In the afternoon we head to Urquhart Castle where we will take a cruise to look for the famous monster of Loch Ness.

May 17th – Saturday – Today we head north to Dunraven Castle where we will see a Falconry Presentation and see this beautiful castle. The afternoon will be yours to explore the town of Inverness.

May 18th – Sunday – We head south through the highlands at places such as; Loch Lomond, Fort William and the Caledonian Canal. Our hotel tonight will be in Glasgow.

May 19th – Monday – Transfer to the airport for our flights back to the United States.
